Administration

"Education is a companion which no misfortune can depress, no crime can destroy, no enemy can alienate, no despotism can enslave. At home a friend, abroad an introduction, in solitude a solace, and in society an ornament. It chastens vice, it guides virtue, it gives, at once, grace and government to genius. Without it, what is man? A splendid slave, a reasoning savage."

Silver King Band

The Silver King Tarpon Band added to the spirit of the new winning tradition in such ways as introducing a new school fight song, playing at TARPON games and pep rallies, and performing in half-time shows. It also participated in parades, concerts, civic programs, and contests.

Every member worked to make this year outstanding and some of them even planned several of the half-time shows.

The band prepares for a Christmas concert.

The band performs during half-time.

Mark Mungello, assistant drum major, leads the band in the Homecoming parade.

Dean Weaver sets the beat for the TAR PON band.

D. C. T.

The Diversified Cooperative Training Club of Charlotte High maintained high objectives throughout the year. It sold candy, made food baskets for the needy at Christmas, and sponsored a car wash. It again entered the float competition at Homecoming and with esprit de corps its members built a winning float. It attended the district meeting in Venice in November and the state convention in May. D.C.T. met every other Friday at 8:00 a.m., usually at the Holiday Inn, to participate in a combination business meeting and breakfast.

Future Homemakers

To aid Senior F.H.A. in carrying out its overall objective - to help individuals improve personal, family, and community living - it participated in several projects.

Among these activities were a visit to the Florida Power and Light Sunshine Kitchen, meetings with representatives of Home Economics in business and industry, and a panel discussion on how best to prepare for marriage. Its money-making projects included selling candied apples during the Homecoming game and organizing a Tupperware Party.

Sharon Viestaes, Lynn Cornell, Connie Goff, Linda Bird, Dale Taylor, Sheila Stillwagon, Linda Utley, Mary Fraker.

Jr. F.H.A.

"To dare is to care," and the Jr. Future Homemakers of America proved its worth throughout the year by trying to eliminate prejudices and inequalities.

Jr. F.H.A.'s activities included a splash party, initiation of new members with a Big and Little F.H.A. Day, a Christmas party, and a Mother-Father-Daughter Banquet. It also sent two delegates and the sponsor to the Jr. F.H.A. state convention in Clearwater, Florida and observed the National F.H.A. week. Installation of new officers took place in May.

The money-making projects for the year were the sale of doughnuts in the cafeteria before school each morning at the sale of items from Tom Watt kits.

Inter-Club Council

The newly formed Inter-club Council consisted of a representative from each of CJSHS' clubs. Inter-club co-ordinated all club activities and made sure that they were placed on the school calendar of events.

Key Club

As a service club in its second year at Charlotte High, Key Club participated in the 1969 Homecoming by organizing and sponsoring the second annual Field Day. Participants in grades 7-12 competed in tricycle, sack, wheelbarrow, and three-legged races.

The club also sponsored the Miss CHS contest which was climaxed by a semi-formal dance where the 1969-'70 Miss CHS was crowned.

For the second year, Key Club members participated in a Kiwanis vs. Key Club basketball game. All proceeds from the game went to a worthy cause.

Honor Society

While eating doughnuts, supporting the TARPONS, appearing on TV brain brawls, and stuffing envelopes, NHS continually proved to be a lively and adventurous club. This year NHS participated in such untraditional projects as sponsoring the Homecoming ribbon dummy, giving a pizza party for its members and dates, and getting caught in various pictures for its scrapbook, which was entered in the state NHS scrapbook contest.

NHS supported its distinguished members - State Secretary, Terry Knecht and District Secretary, Pam Slocum - and it sponsored delegates to the state and district conventions. At the end of the year, it gave scholarships to two deserving seniors.

Whether it involved selling megaphones at basketball games or roses on Valentine's Day, the Lettermen's Club promoted goodwill for themselves and others.

This club consisted of those who earned varsity letters in any athletic sport.

Medical Careers

By working at both the Medical Center and St. Joseph's hospitals, helping in the Heart Fund Drive, and making Easter baskets for children in Arcadia, the Medical Careers Club served the public.

Its members also entered a float in the Homecoming competition, sponsored a bake sale, car wash, and candy sale, gave a Valentine's Party and held a banquet for Mother's Day.

Bill Damiano, treasurer; Roseanna Kinnison, vice president; Pat Cruise, president; Janet Ewaldt, secretary

Newspaper Staff

The Ward of the Guardian;
The Lord of the Paper.
This Paper is the Ward.
This Editor the Lord.
.. so began each issue of the student newspaper, the WARD.

Edited by seniors Connie Ballinger and Lynn Harrell, the WARD was published by the newspaper staff and the fifth period journalism class, both of which gained a working knowledge of production and publication of a newspaper.

Pep Club

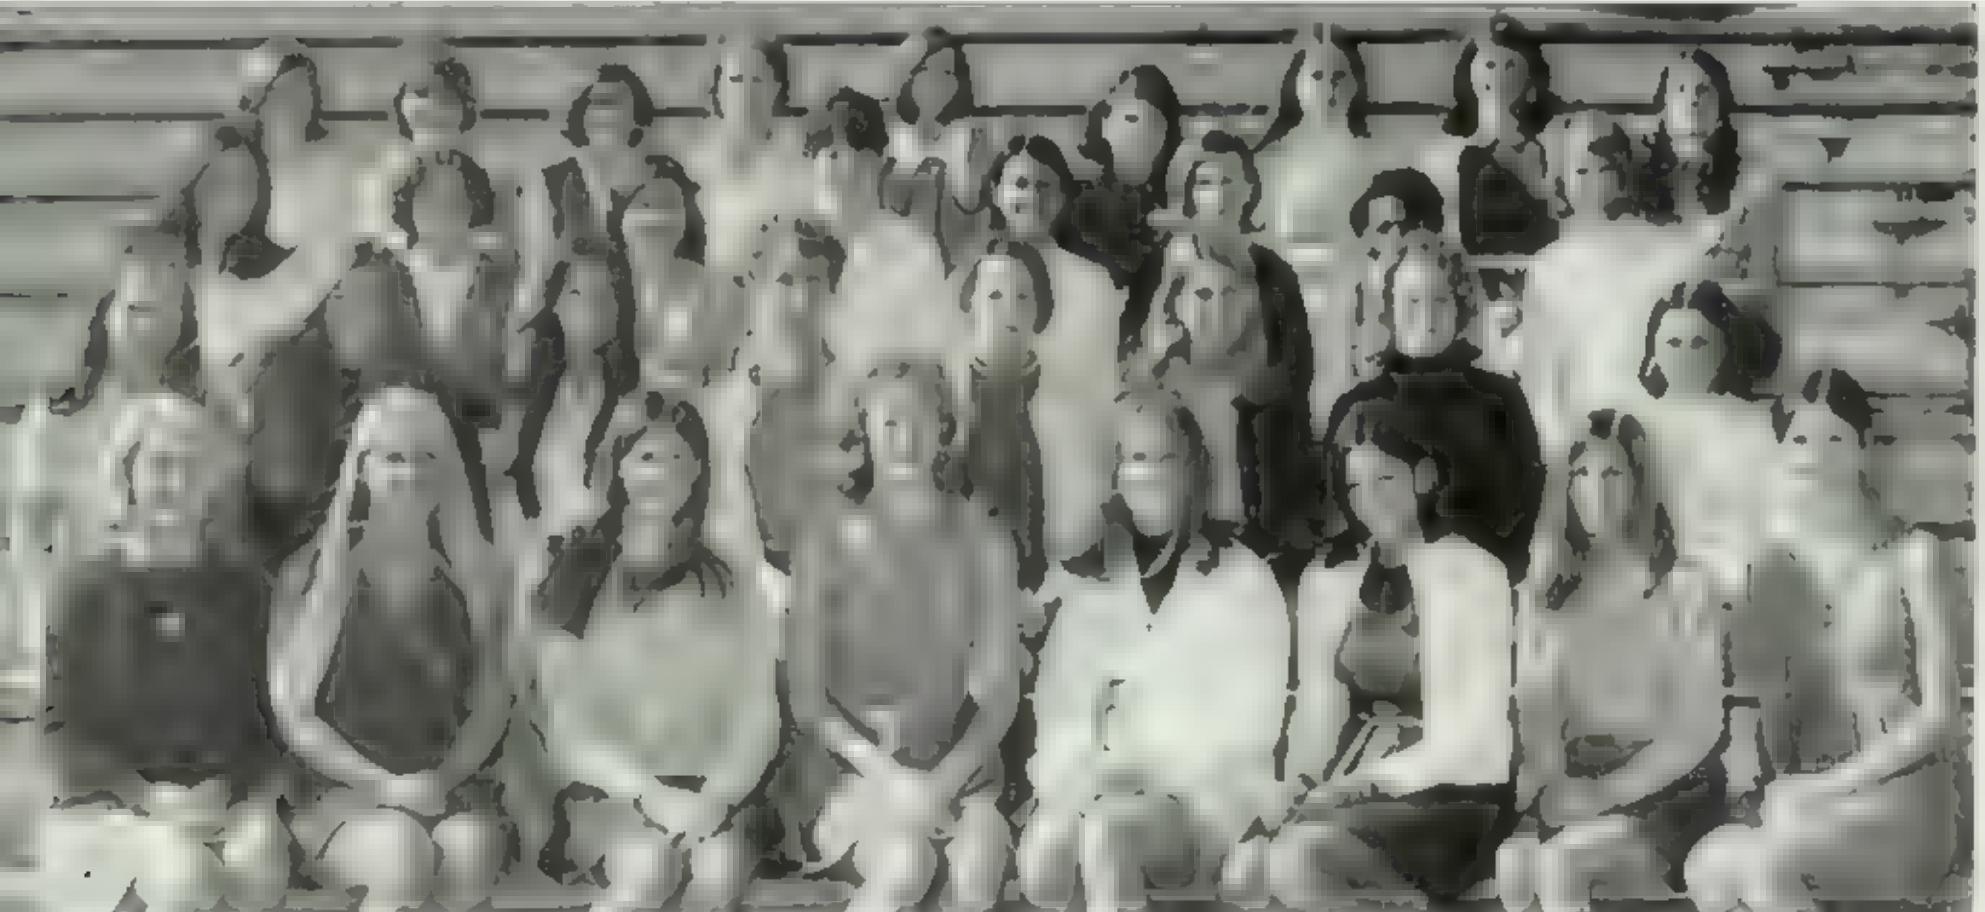

By supporting the TARPONS and promoting school spirit, Pep Club added to the enthusiasm of the new tradition at CJSHS. To do this, Pep Club sold ribbons and buttons, sponsored buses to away games, made booster posters and banners, and cheered for all the TARPON teams.

The highlight of the year was the annual Powder-puff football game, when the juniors and sophomores challenged the seniors in a game of touch football. At halftime Burton Lawless was crowned 1969-'70 Powderpuff Queen.

Student Council

Students count, and Student Council worked to serve them all by strengthening student-faculty relationships and encouraging interest in school government.

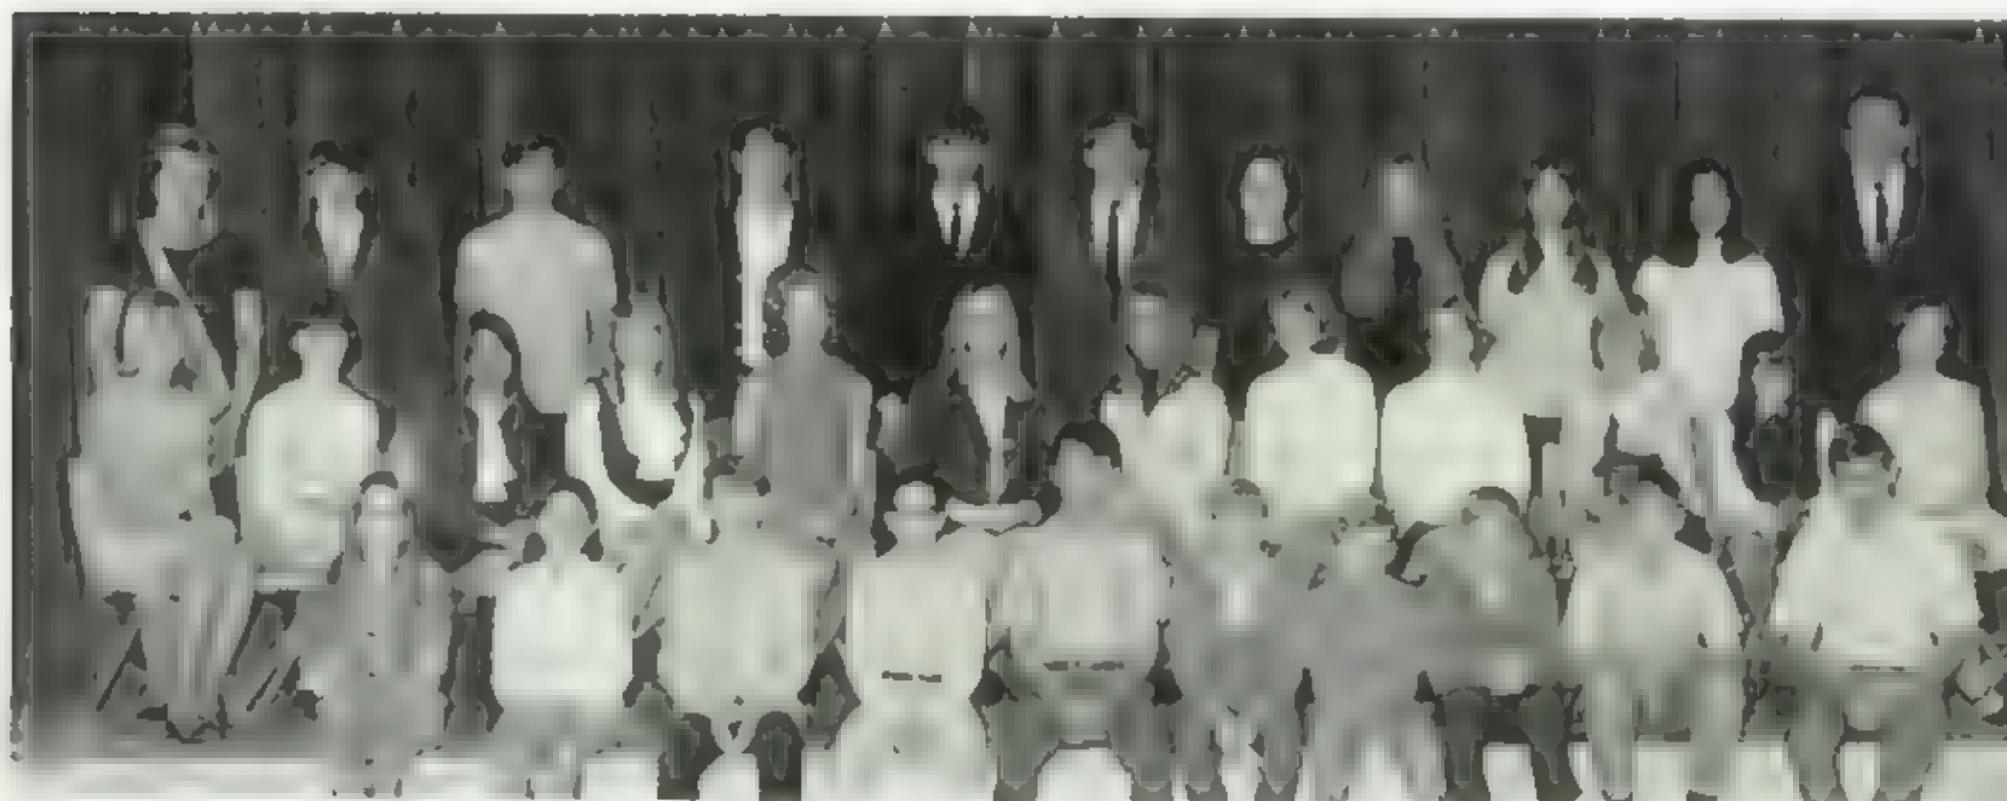

To do this, the Council assumed the responsibility for the school calendar of activities, the Lost and Found program, The school store, several assemblies, and the organizing of the Interclub Council.

Student Council also made it lawful for students to chew gum and to keep the coke machine.

The 1969-70 Homecoming activities started off Tuesday, November 4th with "color day." Wednesday was "field day" and all students dressed in their grubbiest clothes. Some participated in the field events such as the tricycle race, sack race, and others. Thursday night was the snake dance and bonfire. The Juniors won the honor of throwing the pin dummy into the fire this year. All during the week classes and certain clubs worked furiously to have their floats ready for the parade on Friday. The climax of the week was the big football game against East Bay - with the Charlotte Tarpons victorious! Connie Ballinger was chosen the new Homecoming Queen in ceremonies held during half-time. A dance sponsored by the Sophomore class was held in the gym after the game with music by the "Affiliations."

Seniors Triumph in Powderpuff

The 1937-38 Powderpuff queen was Burton Lawless.

The Senior Powderpuff team was led by Coach Lay and the Juniors and Sophomores by Coach Goldsmith.

The Senior defensive team goes out onto the field to face their opponents. The Seniors were victorious with a final score of 14 to 6.

Teri Zimmerman and her escort Frank Desquin reigned over the prom.

Just year the class of 1970 held the Junior prom at the new Municipal Auditorium. The auditorium was embellished in green decorations to portray the theme, "Emerald City." Music was furnished by the "America Brass." The highlight of the evening was the announcement of the 1969-70 Prom Queen, Teri Zimmerman.

All in attendance at the dance enjoyed the music, dancing, and refreshments.

Spirits Mount During Homecoming

Homecoming was a period of confusion, expectation, and excitement. Students were invited to participate in various ways. All loyal TARPON fans wore blue and gold on Color Day. Along with cheering grubby, students took part in Field Day events. The Seniors captured first place by winning all but one event. The traditional snake dance was eliminated by a pep rally around the bonfire. By winning the ribbon dummy contest, the Juniors received the honor of throwing the dummy in the bonfire. The final day of Homecoming began with a dress up day for the student body. During the parade, the public got its first view of weeks of dedicated and tedious work - the Homecoming floats. The Senior class again showed its outstanding spirit by placing first in the float contest with "The Only Good Nun is a Whomfed Nun". D.C.T. placed second and third place went to the Sophomore class. The mighty TARPONS beat the East Bay Indians 21 to before a large crowd of students, alums, and fans. During halftime, Carol Badinger was crowned Homecoming queen and later presided over the semi-formal dance which culminated the week's events.

More school? Man, that's not my bag!

Poor Rick. He's traded one bag for another . . .
and he's losing out.

You see, further education is more than just the key to a better job, and a successful future. You'll discover a whole new world of people, ideas, and living.

And if that's your bag, further education is where it begins.

Time it was,
And what a time it was,
It was ...
A time of innocence
A time of confidences Long ago ... it must be ...
I have a photograph.
Preserve your memories;
They're all that's left of you.

To Marlene, I'm so glad I got to know you this year. You're a fun person to be with (although you walk funny.) and I really had fun at the NHS convention.
Hello? Remember all the fun in English & Communism and of course Study Hall.
Best of luck to you. Hope to keep in touch.

To & bed in college and sweet in chemistry
the old report in chemistry book/report.
Both of good class from you all

Don't you wish I Din't in England, Dick think of where you were France. Remember our 320 period - duty hell, and all that we are finished.

Marlene,
you've got to admit Chemistry was really something else this year. Wish you good in all that you pursue.

Marlene, Best of year at luck next year at Waldo. It's been a good year especially in Honor Society and Annual Staff. Rememb'r
yours and Mr. Jacobson's arguments on writing rules?
Best wishes always.
